

WINTER HOUSE MAY HAVE QUORUM

General Assembly Likely to Transact Little Business To-day.

GOSSIP ABOUT THE MEMBERS

Some are Coming in and Some Going Home Until After Sunday—Nothing to Be Done Until Committee Reports.

It is exceedingly doubtful if either house of the General Assembly have a quorum to-day. The Senate had but thirteen members present yesterday, and the House of Delegates but fifty-one. One of the members of the House said last night that he knew of several members going away, but not one who came in. The sessions to-day at best are expected to be of short duration and hardly to be compared with the football game of Thursday for excitement.

A hard working member of the House said last night he thought it would be ten days before the committee would begin to make their reports on amendments to the laws. He thinks that the work will be mainly routine and not calculated to excite much debate.

The hotels were practically deserted last night, so far as politicians and members of the General Assembly were concerned. All were down in the United States Court room listening to the argument relating to the Constitution. At one time last night Speaker Ryan and Mr. Matthews, of the House, were the only members of the House in the lobby at Murphy's, which is usually crowded. Speaker Ryan said he had sat in the court room all the afternoon. Mr. Matthews said he was so spent the afternoon down there and had a headache that he would be away from there then. Neither gentleman expects an opinion adverse to the legality of the Constitution.

Dr. George Le Cato, who has been ill at his home in Accomac, is expected here next week. Mr. Matthews, his colleague in the House, had a letter from him Thursday in which he stated that he was expected to come up next week to stay. He has engaged a first-floor room at New Ford's and hopes, on account of the convenience of the location, to attend the sessions regularly. He was paralyzed on one side, and has been steadily working and has the confidence and esteem of the entire Senate. He does not often speak, but his views are always treated with much consideration.

The subcommittee from the House Committee on General Laws met yesterday morning and afternoon. Three gentlemen assigned to the important duty of the subcommittee are Messrs. Hunter, Cumming and Cabell. The full committee will meet Friday next week to receive reports, and then a report will be made to the House.

Copies of the Palladium supplement, showing that laws have been amended and how, have been placed in the hands of the members of both houses and will be of immense value as a time-saver.

Col. Joseph Burton, clerk of the Senate, who spent Thanksgiving day at his home near Walker's Ford, returned to the post to-day at noon when the Senate convenes.

Attention has been called to the fact that chance has seated the largest and the smallest members of the House side by side. These are Messrs. Taylor and Carroll, who recently told a friend that his weight was not 300, as reported, but 410, and Waddy, of Rockbridge county, who tips the scales not far above a hundred.

Senator Harman says he is going to push the Mann bill, designed to decrease the volume of liquor business in the State, soon after the new year, when the members are fresh from making their good resolutions.

The chances are that Senator Lupton will have a "barrel" of apples in the Senate cloak-room before long. Mr. Lupton is one of the largest apple-growers in the State and usually has a barrel of the specimens for the delectation of his colleagues.

Gen. Eppa Hunton and Hon. Eppa Hunton, Jr., father and son, were on the floor of the House yesterday.

CROWDS GONE

Stream of Humanity Left as it Came, in a Rush.

The great streams of humanity which poured into Richmond on Thursday, made for the city and Park Hotel and there beat upon the boundaries of the broad grounds for more than two hours in its wild enthusiasm over the struggle between Virginia and the Carolinas, receded during the night, and on yesterday the streets and lobbies of hotels which had been filled to overflowing on the previous day held their normal currents, the crowds having gone as it came, in a rush. Here and there one was left drifting on the banks of the stream after its flood, but the great crowd had gone, scattering over the States of Virginia and North Carolina to tell of the battle.

Where the game was discussed, and that was everywhere one or two were gathered together, the impression created that its result was as great for Southern athletes and will be the greatest stimulant to interest in the game in the future.

In view of the strained relation which have existed between Carolina and Virginia for four years, it seems well that the Tarheel soldiers, who have been considered victors, while Virginia has not the bitterness of defeat to endure.

At the Virginia Church, his subject was "The Bitterness of Defeat to Endure."

Messrs. R. E. L. Marshall, of Baltimore; Paul Locke, of Charlottesville; and A. W. Aston, of Abingdon.

TIMBERLAKE HOLDS OWN

Wounded Man's Condition Remains Unchanged During the Day.

The condition of Charles Timberlake, who was shot and seriously wounded Thursday afternoon by a negro, John Lewis, is still most critical. At the City Hospital, where he is a patient, it was said last night that there had been little change in his condition during the day, but the fact that he held his own was considered in his favor. The wound is in the abdomen.

Eljah Under the Juniper Tree.

Rev. L. N. Boyles will preach Sunday, both morning and evening, at Randolph Baptist Church. His subject in the morning will be "Eljah Under the Juniper Tree," and at night he will preach on "What Will You Do With Jesus?"

Free Medical Advice to Women.

All Letters

Are Strictly Confidential

Every sick and ailing woman, Every young girl who suffers monthly, Every woman who is approaching maternity, Every woman who feels that life is a burden, Every woman who has tried all other means to regain health without success, Every woman who is going through that critical time—the change of life—is invited to write to Mrs. Pinkham, Lynn, Mass., in regard to her trouble, and the most expert advice telling exactly how to obtain a CURE will be sent absolutely free of cost.

The one thing that qualifies a person to give advice on any subject is experience—experience creates knowledge. No other person has so wide an experience with female ills nor such a record of success as Mrs. Pinkham has had.

Over a hundred thousand cases come before her each year. Some personally, others by mail. And this has been going on for twenty years, day after day, and day after day.

Twenty years of constant success—think of the knowledge thus gained! Surely women are wise in seeking advice from a woman with such an experience, especially when it is free.

Mrs. Hayes, of Boston, wrote to Mrs. Pinkham when she was in great trouble. Her letter shows the result. There are actually thousands of such letters in Mrs. Pinkham's possession.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I have been under doctors' treatment for female troubles for some time, but without any relief. They now tell me I have a fibroid tumor. I cannot sit down without great pain, and the soreness extends up my spine. I have bearing down pains both back and front. My abdomen is swollen, I cannot wear my clothes with any comfort. Womb is dreadfully swollen, and I have had flowing spells for three years. My appetite is not good. I cannot walk or be on my feet for any length of time.

"The symptoms of Fibroid Tumor, given in your little book, accurately describe my case, so I write to you for advice."—Mrs. E. F. HAYES, 252 Dudley St. (Boston), Roxbury, Mass.

"DEAR MRS. PINKHAM:—I wrote to you describing my symptoms, and asked your advice. You replied, and I followed all your directions carefully for several months, and to-day I am a well woman.

"The use of Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, together with your advice, carefully followed, entirely expelled the tumor, and strengthened the whole system. I can walk miles now.

"Your Vegetable Compound is worth five dollars a drop. I advise all women who are afflicted with tumors, or any female trouble, to write you for advice, and give it a faithful trial."—Mrs. E. F. HAYES, 252 Dudley St. (Boston), Roxbury, Mass.

Mrs. Hayes will gladly answer any and all letters that may be addressed to her asking about her illness, and how Mrs. Pinkham helped her.

$5000 FORFEIT If we cannot forthwith produce the original letter and signature of above testimonial, which will prove its absolute genuineness.

CRITICIZE SERMON OF DR. W. E. EVANS

Street-Car Men Denounce His Statement That Unionism is Akin to Trusts.

Division No. 152, Amalgamated Association of Street Railway Employees, held their business session at their organization yesterday, one session in the morning at 10 o'clock, and a night session at 8:30. Considerable routine business was taken up at both meetings, although most of the night session was spent in discussing the sermon of Dr. W. E. Evans, which appeared in yesterday's paper.

Secretary McKee, of the Y. M. C. A., addressed both sessions and explained the many advantages of the association. Mr. McKee made these explanations to the men by their request, as they are desirous of forming a department of the Y. M. C. A. similar to the steam railway associations now organizing throughout the country. Owing to the difficulty in securing headquarters which would be convenient to all of the men, it is probable that they will join the regular association at Sixth and Main Streets. This point is centrally located and is convenient to all of the men, besides possessing many advantages which they could not otherwise enjoy without their cost to considerable expense. It is probable that a large list of them will present applications to the regular association.

The men were very earnest in their denunciation of Rev. Mr. Evans' sermon. They did not like his assertion that the labor organization was an evil. One member said that he saw in the paper where "the offering was for the poor," and in his mind the "labor union" presented the greatest offering to the poor, and he thought that instead of collecting money for the poor, and teaching them to be dependents they should be taught the principles of trades unionism, and taught to help themselves. Other members were equally earnest in their remarks and that the sermon did not meet with their approval was evident.

Application was made by one member for reinstatement, but as it was found that he was four months behind in his dues, his case was not taken up. He will have to take his discharge as a matter of course. Donations of $10 were made to sick members of the organization and several candidates initiated. At next Thursday's open meeting Dr. Meade of Christ Church, will address the men. The meeting is called for 10 o'clock, and a large attendance is expected.

Ring Found.

An honest negro yesterday afternoon found a handsome gold ring on Broad Street and forthwith carried the piece of jewelry to the Third Police Station.

UP-COUNTRY FARMER GETS IN THE TOILS

The Mayor Allows Him to Go Before People Rise.

WILLIE DRIVER GETS BEATEN

Willie Dobbins is the Man Who Did the Little Work to the Once Champion First Warden—News Notes From Manchester.

Manchester Bureau, Richmond Times.

Four of the farmers from up the country who came to Richmond yesterday, to sell some tobacco passed through Manchester, and the natural beauties of the city at once appealed to their souls. But Richmond was the goal, and every man of the four pushed until Snooker Slip was reached. Tobacco was sold, and the price securely stored away in the pockets of the farmers. One of those men had a hankering after something strong to drink, and unmindful of the protests of his comrades, he proceeded to get drunk. He wound up in the Manchester Station-House. His three comrades were loyal, though, and waked the Mayor up. A plea for leniency was entered, and on the payment of $10 the Mayor allowed the three men to have their comrades and return home in peace.

DRIVER BEATEN. Willie Driver, a young man well known in the First Ward, where he has been "marched of all he surveyed" since his manhood, when his Waterloo last night in the person of Mr. Willie Dobbins, proprietor of the saloon at Eighth and Hull Streets. Driver was very badly beaten about the face and body. The facts in the case soon leaked out, and much surprise that Dobbins got the best of the boy who had been the victor in so many battles. During the first part of the base-ball season Driver played first base for the Manchester team.

At a late hour last night no arrests had been made, though the police had been acquainted with the facts of the fight.

FUNERAL OF MRS. JONES. The funeral of Mrs. Emma Gertrude Jones, who died Thursday afternoon, was conducted from Asbury Methodist Church yesterday afternoon at 3 o'clock. Interment was made in Maury Cemetery. She was a painful sufferer for over six months before death, and she inspected it. She also selected the pall-bearers she wished and the undertaker and pastor. Each request was carried out to the letter.

FUNERAL OF MRS. WOOD. The funeral of Mrs. T. W. Wood, who died Thursday night, will be conducted from St. James Church, Richmond, this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock. Interment will be made in Hollywood.

Mr. C. F. Wood, of Louisville, Ky., will arrive in the city tomorrow morning, and the last sad rites over the remains of his mother. Two other sons and one daughter are residents of this place.

The pall-bearers will be: Honorary—Mr. T. M. Carrington, Mr. George A. Hayes, Dr. J. N. Upshur, Mr. H. T. Smith, Judge B. A. Hancock, Mr. J. S. Robertson, Mr. A. L. Adams, Dr. George Ross.

Active—Mr. W. M. Tompkins, Mr. A. F. Jahnke, Jr., Mr. C. H. Clarke, Mr. L. McKee, Jr., Mr. A. Johnson, Mr. A. C. Diggs, Mr. Jno. Quarles, Mr. L. K. Spencer.

LAURETH-NEWMAN. Mr. Geo. W. Landreth and Miss Mary E. Newman were married Thursday evening at 9 o'clock at the home of the bride on Sixth Street, the Rev. Asa Driscoll, of Fifth-Street Methodist Church, officiating. The attendants were Messrs. J. W. Fitch, R. J. Johnson, and A. Hancock. The ceremony was followed with much interest and sympathy. There is a good deal of very graceful sentiment in the piece, some exquisite humor, and they are both effectively disposed.

The play is so well known here that comment would be superfluous. It is delightful from the first curtain to the last. It begins with a very realistic rain storm, a little slowly, but it is never dull, and the acting is of the highest order. The action is followed with keen interest and sympathy. There is a good deal of very graceful sentiment in the piece, some exquisite humor, and they are both effectively disposed.

FIRE IN STABLE. Fire was discovered in the stable of Mr. W. J. Dobbins, at Sixth and Stockton Streets, yesterday morning at 3:30 o'clock. A call to the department brought out Bob on a run, and following the wagon, every man of the department was soon on the scene.

The damage was to the feed, the building not having time to catch before a stream of water was pouring in.

POLICE TROUBLE. Willie Higgins, a young white man, said to be the city trouble yesterday when asked to do so by the Mayor. Willie was charged with trespassing on the property of Mr. G. W. Wood, but his brother, another young white man, did the trespassing act, but he only had $2.50 to drop, Dink Light (colored) was assessed $25. All fines were promptly paid by the offenders.

PERSONALS AND BRIEFS. Mr. J. W. Trevillian, of Swansboro, won second prize in the Poultry Show of Richmond on white leghorns and black Nanook chickens, against strong competition.

Mrs. G. T. Markham and daughter, Edith, left yesterday morning for her parents' home in Chesterfield county.

The Street Committee will meet this afternoon at 4:30 o'clock at Twentieth and Bainbridge Streets.

The Police Commissioners meet Monday night in the Mayor's office in the Leader building.

Mrs. W. H. Bunker, of Farmville, who has been visiting in the city, has returned home.

Miss Edna Bayley, of the city, is visiting her aunt, Mrs. Blunt, of West Main Street, Richmond.

The Street Committee will have before them this afternoon the question of opening a ditch on the property of Mr. James Bradley at Twentieth and Bainbridge Streets.

The Election Committee audited the bills at their meeting last night. Messrs. W. E. Gill, Jr., R. L. Parham and C. C. Cox were the members present.

David, the colored negro in the city jail, has so far refrained from asking for a minister.

The attractions at the Bijou Theatre next week will be "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" and "Peaceful Valley," presented by the George Fawcett Company, with Mary Shaw.

Dr. J. W. Mansfield's most sensational work is still one of the strongest drawing cards in his repertoire. George Fawcett will play the dual role and will change his identity from Hyde to Jekyll and from Jekyll to Hyde in full view of the audience.

THE ANHEUSER-BUSCH. Trade mark has been used on more bottles than any other label in the world. You will find it on the genuine bottling of Anheuser, Export, Pale, Black & Tan and exquisite. Orders promptly filled by Jos. Stumpf, Jr., Anheuser-Busch Branch, Richmond, Va.

"If the President should decide this winter that a 'reasonable time' in which to secure a title to the property of the Panama Canal Company has elapsed, without being able to complete the negotiations, and should proceed to order."

TWO KILLED AND TWO WOUNDED BY EXPLOSION

(By Associated Press.) MACON, GA., November 28.—By the explosion of a boiler used with a stationary engine at Litzella, a small station on the Macon and Birmingham Railway, ten miles from the city, this evening, two men were instantly killed and two wounded, one of them being now in a critical condition. The dead: PAUL ROGERS, WALTER TAYLOR.

The injured: James Witham, whose back is supposed to have been broken and whose skull was probably fractured, an unknown colored man.

the Nicaragua route, I think he would be justified.

"If he is unable to obtain from Colombia a proper title to the Panama Company's property, with treaty rights that would be considered satisfactory, then he can turn to Nicaragua."

PARALYSIS FAIAL

Mr. Gary Died This Morning After a Week's Unconsciousness.

After lying unconscious for more than a week, following a stroke of paralysis, which he suffered while at his desk in the freight offices of the Richmond, Fredericksburg and Potomac Railroad, Mr. George M. Gary died this morning at 1 o'clock at his home, No. 125 West Broad Street. Though during his illness Mr. Gary was attended by physicians and nurses, who gave him most constant and exhaustive care, every means known to science to restore consciousness at least, there was no response.

Mr. Gary had been in the employment of the road several years, and was widely known in local railroad circles and was a most efficient clerk. He leaves a wife and four children.

The funeral arrangements had not been made last night, but the service will likely take place from Asbury Methodist Church to-morrow.

AMENDED BILL FILED AGAINST SUGAR REFINING COMPANY

(By Associated Press.) TRENTON, N. J., November 28.—Robert J. Trimble to-day filed in the Court of Chancery a bill asking that the American Sugar Refining Company be restrained from dealing in coffee; that it be restrained from selling sugar at less than cost, and that the directors of the company be compelled to distribute among stockholders their portion of its undivided profits, which bill alleges amounts to about $50,000,000.

This bill is an amendment of one that was filed by Mr. Trimble in May, 1901, to accomplish similar purposes, and that was dismissed on demurrer on technical grounds, with leave to file an amendment. Mr. Trimble charges in his bill that the company's charter gives it no authority to deal in coffee, and that as a result of the fight with the Arbuckle, the company is selling sugar at less than cost.

It is also alleged that as a result of this fight some $50,000,000 of undivided profits have been expended and that unless the order asked for is granted and the fight is discontinued the remaining undivided profits will also be spent.

CONVICTED OF VAGRANCY; SOLD TO HIGHEST BIDDER

(By Associated Press.) LANCASTER, KY., Nov. 28.—Sheriff Lawrence attracted a large crowd before the courthouse door to-day by the sale of three negroes, two women and a man. The bids were lively, but small. The man, Charles Anderson, sold for twelve months, brought seven dollars, and the women, Belle Griffin and Emma Reid, sold for one and three years, respectively, brought five dollars each.

The three were convicted for vagrancy and ordered to be sold to the highest bidder.

At the Theatres.

It was like old times at the Academy last night. The Giffen Company was there in "Rosamond," a delightful play, produced in a most masterly manner. Manager Giffen has made familiar with all the atmosphere of the early days of the nineteenth century and the charming society with which the play deals. The costumes are excellent and there was a remarkable total of excellent acting.

The play was received with great enthusiasm; there were numerous curtain calls, and the old favorites of the company were most cordially greeted.

The play is so well known here that comment would be superfluous. It is delightful from the first curtain to the last. It begins with a very realistic rain storm, a little slowly, but it is never dull, and the acting is of the highest order. The action is followed with keen interest and sympathy. There is a good deal of very graceful sentiment in the piece, some exquisite humor, and they are both effectively disposed.

Miss Scott scored a great triumph as Dorothy Cruikshank. During the earlier scenes the character is chiefly marked by the qualities of sweetness and glee. No one acquainted with the acting of Miss Scott is likely to deny to her the right to wear the title of "The Girl of the Year." The play is followed with keen interest and sympathy. There is a good deal of very graceful sentiment in the piece, some exquisite humor, and they are both effectively disposed.

Captain Crisshank, with the very latest and finest work Mr. Blakemore has ever done, and he carries his audience along on a high tide of mirth. Mr. Mathieu as Sir Jasper was a trifle starchy at first, but quiet, impressive and satisfactory.

Mr. Emory, Miss La Verne and Edwin Wallace all do conspicuous work.

There will be matinee and night performances to-day.

"Among Those Present" the new comedy in which Mrs. LeMayne appears at the Academy of Music Monday evening, December 1st, has other merits than being a satire on the New York Four Hundred. While the scenes are laid in New York, the lesson of extravagance and folly in social frivolity is of the most general character and can be understood by all.

"The Climbers" will be presented in this city at the Academy on Tuesday night. It is a four-act comedy, considered to be Mr. Clyde Fitch's most brilliant contribution to stage literature.

"The Major and the Judge" will close its engagement at the Bijou with this afternoon's matinee and to-night's performance, judging from the advance sale, promise to be well attended.

The attractions at the Bijou Theatre next week will be "Dr. Jekyll and Mr. Hyde" and "Peaceful Valley," presented by the George Fawcett Company, with Mary Shaw.

Dr. J. W. Mansfield's most sensational work is still one of the strongest drawing cards in his repertoire. George Fawcett will play the dual role and will change his identity from Hyde to Jekyll and from Jekyll to Hyde in full view of the audience.

RICHMOND GRAYS WILL HAVE A DANCE

Plans for Arranging Their New Headquarters—Portraits of Captains.

Company "A," Richmond Grays, held their regular drill at the army last night. The drill was one of the best attended and best executed for some time. Great interest is shown in Lieutenant Masurier's drill team, and the members expect to have the best drilled company of the regiment this year.

The company's room, which has been undergoing a thorough remodeling, is nearing completion, and will be opened Friday night. The company will be moving to be fixed up in first class condition, new paper on the walls, new carpet, furniture; in fact, everything new. Communication is being held with all of the company's officers, and they are descendants, who have been in service since 1861, and it is expected that a large portrait of each will be secured to adorn the walls of the room.

The company will go to Chincoboro Park to compete for the Hardy cup in target practice, the shooting to take place from 2:30 P. M. until finished.

Company B, of the Seventieth Regiment, will contest for the Hardy cup this afternoon instead in the morning, as has been announced. The trophy was won by the company last year, and they now hope to retain it for another twelve months.

RELATIVE OF CAPT. DREYFUS WAS ONE OF THE VICTIMS

(Special Dispatch to The Times.) NEW YORK, November 28.—One man killed in a horrible manner and the death of another from shock was the result of an accident on the Ninth-Avenue Elevated Railroad at Columbus Avenue and Seventy-fifth Street to-day. The dead, JOHN MULAGHILL, twenty-five years old, laborer.

EMANUEL DREYFUS, of No. 8 West 150th Street, died at the hospital. He was a relative of the famous Frenchman, and was also said to be worth $100,000. He was a member of the Old Guard, and realized from his position about $1,500 a year.

McLaughlin was struck by an express train and hurled to death. Mr. Dreyfus witnessed the accident and dropped dead of a heart attack at the Seventy-second-Street Station.

Emanuel Dreyfus was sixty-five years old and was appointed as assistant clerk to Comptroller of the City of New York, Robert F. Patterson, on March 11, 1884. He was said to be related to the Dreyfuses, of France, and was also said to be worth $100,000. He was a member of the Old Guard, and realized from his position about $1,500 a year.

CHAIRMAN PAYNE OPPOSE TARIFF REFORM THIS WINTER

(By Associated Press.) WASHINGTON, November 28.—Representative Sereeno Payne, chairman of the Ways and Means Committee of the House, and Representative Littlefield, of Maine, who has been prominently identified with the anti-trust legislation, saw the President separately for a few minutes to-day.

Mr. Payne discouraged any attempt of tariff legislation this fall. The most important of his committee work this winter, he thinks, will be in connection with the anti-trust legislation.

Mr. Littlefield believes the assent of the House will be required.

Mr. Littlefield was reticent concerning the program for anti-trust legislation. He said he was not yet prepared to announce his withdrawal from the Speaker's ship race.

COLOMBIAN INVADERS RECOSS FRONTIER

(By Associated Press.) CARACAS, VENEZUELA, Nov. 28.—The Colombian invaders under Generals Garbarras and Espirito Morales, after several defeats, were obliged to recross the frontier November 26th. They left numerous prisoners in the hands of the Venezuelan troops, among them Chief of Staff Brice, who was abandoned in a wounded condition, and a quantity of ammunition.

The revolutionary General Matos is still lying at Willemstad, Curacao.
